

The Friday Book Group comprises of a diverse demographic of readers, who vary in both age, gender and overall taste in literature. Everybody is encouraged to contribute evenly each month, and everybody has a say in which books are selected each year.

BOOK GROUP LIST 2025	Title	Author
	What you are looking for is in the library	Aoyama Michiko
	Rental person who does nothing	Shoji Morimoto
	The seven moons of Maali Almeida	Shehan Karunatilaka
	Klara & the sun	Kazuo Ishiguro
	Women and children	Tony Birch
	The in-between	Christos Tsiolkas
	Stone Yard devotional	Charlotte Wood
	The wind knows my name	Isabel Allende
	A brief affair	Alex Miller
	Day's end	Garry Disher
	After story	Larissa Behrendt
	The animals in that country	Laura Jean McKay

Note: The book list order I subject to change due to availability at the local library.

Note: The group is facilitated by a lead volunteer named Prue, who we can put you in contact with if you have any questions about the group, or would like to clarify which book is coming up next. Prue also brings a pile of new books for the following months meeting to each session.

*Brunswick
Neighbourhood
House*